Premier players will prepare for high-level high school soccer and the college game by learning through small-sided games, a technical session, and a full-sided game. Goalkeeper training will be available throughout the day. Sessions will cover mental and physical aspects of the game to teach players the motivational skills required for high-level competition. Each camper will receive a T-shirt and a soccer bag.

- Campers will need to bring towels and linens.
- July 17, 11:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m., check in, Löhe Hall
- July 19, 3 p.m.-final game, departure after final game

FACILITIES

Campers will utilize some of the best outdoor facilities in the Iowa Conference. Camp drills and game action will be at Knights Soccer Complex and Walston-Hoover Stadium.

PARENTS

Each registered camper will receive a confirmation letter, including map and directions, rules and regulations, and check-in information. On the final day of each session, parents are invited to observe their sons and daughters during the instruction period. All participants are required to comply with the rules and regulations of Wartburg College and the Sports Camps. Any violation of these rules will result in immediate dismissal from the camp.

CAMP DIRECTOR

Head Coach Tiffany Pins, a 2005 Wartburg graduate, is entering her fourth year at the helm of the women's soccer program.

In her first season the Knights finished 17-2-3, claimed a share of the Iowa Conference regular-season crown, qualified for the conference tournament, and advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament. Nine players were named All-Conference and three were named All-Region, a first for the program. The squad also set the single-season record with 12 shutout wins.

In 2012 the Orange and Black finished 12-5-3, qualified for the conference tournament, and advanced to the NCAA tournament. Eight players were named All-Conference, including Cathy Reiter who was named the conference's MVP. In 2013 the team qualified for the conference tournament and five were named All-Conference.

While playing for Wartburg, Pins (maiden name Treanor), was part of a strong Knights' incline. The three-time program Most Valuable Player and 2004 All-Iowa Conference honoree starred on squads that won 10-or-more matches twice, including a 16-3-1 mark during her senior season. As an assistant, she helped lead two teams to 10-or-more victories, including a 14-6 mark in 2005. While an assistant coach at Denison University from 2007 to 2010, the school reached the Elite Eight as part of three NCAA Division III tournament berths. The program also won two regular-season and one North Coast Athletic Conference tournament title.

Pins earned her Master of Arts degree in physical education with an emphasis in teaching and coaching from the University of Northern Iowa. She also has an NSCAA Advanced National Diploma.

TRANSPORTATION

If you fly, transportation to campus will be provided from the Waterloo Municipal Airport, 15 miles south of Waverly. It is important to notify our office at least two weeks prior to camp of your flight number and arrival time. Parking will be provided for campers who drive to Waverly, but they will not be permitted to use their vehicles at any time during the camp.
